[Your Business Name] is going to the dogs on June 23

Local business joins companies around the globe in the 25th annual celebration of PSI's Take Your Dog To Work Day[®] on Friday, June 23

[CITY, State abbreviation (Month Day, 2023)]—On Friday, June 23, [Your Business Name] will join companies around the globe in opening their doors to employees' furry, four-legged best friends for PSI's 25th annual Take Your Dog To Work Day[®] (TYDTWDay).

TYDTWDay was established by Pet Sitters International (PSI) in 1999. This annual event urges businesses around the globe to experience the joys of dogs in the workplace for just one day to celebrate the great companions dogs make and to promote adoptions from local shelters, rescue groups and humane societies.

The 2023 celebration marks [Your Business Name]'s [# of years your business has participated—first, second, etc.] year of TYDTWDay participation.

"[Your Business Name] is excited to take part in this special 25th annual celebration and 'go to the dogs' for a good cause! We see this event as a way to recognize the important role dogs play in our employees' lives and an opportunity to make a positive impact on our local community," said [Your Company Representative's Name, Title].

[Your Business Name] anticipates [Number of Dogs] dogs to join them on June 23 and has a variety of activities planned, including [list any special TYDTWDay events planned—photo contest, pet tricks, donation to animal shelter, etc.].

"Take Your Dog To Work Day has been celebrated for more than two decades now," said PSI Founder and CEO Patti Moran. "When companies like [Your Business Name] join in the TYDTWDay celebration, they not only provide an enjoyable perk for their employees—they also increase community ties and raise awareness of local pets in need of a forever home."
